

SPORTS

Baseball
Fletcher dropped a perfect game over the left field line for his last hit, while Meyer scored the first run of the matchless inning, which passed the game away on the spot.

Clayton for a Moment.
With five runs to work on, Marquand grew careless. He fumbled and fumbled Gardner's easy tap, using the single and the double grab. Then then single, and with a few drops, Marquand, batting for O'Brien, took off a double to left, which Devereux batted, and the hectic combination cut two runs.

But that lone assault ended the Boston rally, save one faint flutter in the fourth, when Stahl singled and Wagner drove one like a shot over Mudgrass in center, only to be robbed of a sure triple by the greatest catch of the game, a heart-pounding, pulse-tearing dash and leap for the ball streaking on to the fence.

From that point on Marquand was master of the game and steady scene. He had crashing sluggers like Speaker, Gardner, Lewis and Hooper tied up in true lovers' knots without a chance to assist his classic repertoire at any stage of the fray. In vain Stahl pleaded for a rally, but how the clutch can you "hit 'em where they ain't" when you can't see 'em where they are? It was the Rubes' day to win, for he was not only steady and sure but his support was brilliant and consistent all the way. Mathewson, with anything approaching the same backing, would have won one game and tied another.

Had Glens' Number.
After replacing O'Brien, Ray Collins had the Glens' record and whip-awed. The only ringing blow struck against him came from the war mace of Meyer in the fourth, the longest, hardest wallop of the series—a whistle drive which bisected the space between Lewis and Speaker and which for a faster man would have been a home run. But Collins tightened, and the Indian never left the bag.

The peeling was fast and sure on both sides, despite a scattering drift of errors, which failed to affect the result.

With teams well entered this seventh battle with confidence and with average determination to win. Joe Wood, home ground and will pitch his heart and soul but to win. McGraw announces Tebeau, with a faint chance that he may switch and counter with Mathewson in the main battle of the old master is right. But in any event 25,000 frenzied fanatics will see a fight to the death. For if Boston loses today New York will have the edge with a veteran left to oppose a youngster in the most decisive world series game ever played.

College Men Organize.
Norfolk, Va., October 11.—Norfolk College men to-day organized to work in behalf of the Wilson-Marshall ticket. R. F. Wells was elected president. A committee was appointed to make a canvass of the city for members, and an effort will be made to swell the Democratic campaign fund. J. F. Elbow, representative of the national organization, attended the organization and delivered an address.

More Serious Business.
Norfolk, Va., October 11.—A. J. Franks, a Richmond restaurateur, has been indicted for the same building in Main Street. The consideration was $37,000. The consideration was $37,000. The consideration was $37,000.

HARVARTON,
a formal looking collar for informal wear. The parallel lines of this new style make it entirely distinctive.

By a great favorite with college everywhere. Sassy, Stylish, Effective. "YALE-TOWN" is the name collar but lower.

Both made with the famous "Slip-Over" system—solid, and fastened "Lock-the-Loose."

Slip Collars
3 for 50. Quarter Size. Good quality, durable HARVARTON style, a very smart collar.

Wood's Special Grass and Clover Mixtures. Make the Largest Yield of Hay and Pasture.

They are combined in proper proportions to give the best results for the different uses for which they are recommended.

We use in these mixtures our Trade Mark Brand Seed, which is the best quality seed available, and mixed both on a scientific and practical basis.

Our customers report the most satisfactory results, both as to quantity and quality of both hay and pasture.

Wood's Descriptive Full Catalogue, showing full information, also full of all about our Grass and Clover Seed, Alfalfa, and all of our Farm and Garden Seeds, is sent free.

Send postal note. Write for it. T. W. WOOD & SONS, Salisbury, - Richmond, Va.

Tubers
On Wednesday afternoon, the first of the season, the first of the season, the first of the season.

Yale-Town
The name collar but lower.

Joe Wood, "Smash" Joe, the strong right arm which has won five games for Boston, and the fast pitcher, who will deliver the ball to the world's people.

BADEN WINNER OF CASTLETON CUP

Dickerson, Driving Adlon in Champion Stallion's Stakes, Thrown, but Not Hurt.

Lexington, Ky., October 14.—The Castleton cup, the principal race of a good card, furnished at the meeting of the Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association here to-day, was won by Baden. The champion stallion stake was won in straight heats by Baden McGreggor. In the first heat the shaft of Adlon's sulky broke at the start, and Dickerson was thrown, but not seriously injured. Adlon kept going, and finished in front, but was placed fourth.

Georgie took Dickerson's place in the second heat, but Adlon broke badly and finished third. The time in the second heat, 3:04 1-4, was the fastest for a three-year-old this year.

The 3:06 pace furnished the most stubbornly contested race of the day, and had to be put over until afternoon. Summary:

The Castleton Cup, three in five, value $1,000.—Heat, 1st, by Baden (McGreggor), first; Adlon W. H. A. (Cox), second; Dutch Medium, 3rd. 2nd, by Baden (McGreggor), first; Adlon W. H. A. (Cox), second; Dutch Medium, 3rd. 3rd, by Baden (McGreggor), first; Adlon W. H. A. (Cox), second; Dutch Medium, 3rd.

Champion stallion stake, three-year-old trotters, two in three, value $1,500.—Sulky McGreggor, 1st, by Jay McGreggor (Andrews), first; Putnam Todd, 2nd. 2nd, by Jay McGreggor (Andrews), first; Putnam Todd, 2nd. 3rd, by Jay McGreggor (Andrews), first; Putnam Todd, 2nd.

2:36 class pacing, three in five, value $1,000.—Therese (Whitehead), first; Walter Cooper, 2nd. 2nd, by Therese (Whitehead), first; Walter Cooper, 2nd. 3rd, by Therese (Whitehead), first; Walter Cooper, 2nd.

Lexington PREBYTERY CLOSING ANNUAL SESSION

Several changes in Pastoral Relations. Address by Dr. Henry Louis Smith.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Stanton, Va., October 14.—Lexington Presbytery has closed the fall meeting with the Millboro Church. The moderator was Rev. J. A. Norris, of the West Springs Church.

The following changes were made in the pastoral relations of ministers who were members of the presbytery: Rev. J. A. Armstrong, of Ellensburg and Coaling Church, was dismissed to accept pastorate of Douglas Church, at Prince Edward County; Rev. E. G. Gammon, of Clarksville, W. Va., was dismissed to Western Texas; Rev. A. F. Trotter was permitted to resign the charges of Deerfield and Goshen; Rev. T. L. Jernberger, who was pastor of Westminster and Harman Churches, in West Virginia, was permitted to resign the pastorate to go to China as a missionary, and he left on Thursday for China. The pastoral relations of Rev. J. A. Thomas with Millboro and Windy Cove were dissolved, and he was dismissed to accept a pastorate at Charlotte Courthouse.

An order was taken for the establishment of a new church on Irish Creek, in Rockbridge County, to be placed under the care of the Lexington Church.

On Wednesday afternoon, the first of the season, the first of the season, the first of the season.

ORTH TO TESTIFY BEFORE LYNCH

Summoned as Witness in Hearing Regarding Fogel's Charges of Persecution.

Lynchburg, Va., October 14.—Al Orth, who was a member of the National League and during the closing months of the past season, has been summoned to New York by President Lynch, his presence being desired at the sitting of charges made by President Fogel of Philadelphia, to effect that the umpire favored the Giants, thus enabling them to secure another championship.

Orth expects to leave Wednesday night for New York, but he declines to talk about the coming investigation. Ask him about the umpire favoring New York, and he laughs—not the smile that made him famous as a major league moundman for thirteen seasons. Orth, along with him, played the final game of the season in New York, and he was one of the two who headed the big strike in Chicago on the last afternoon of the season, when the players refused to play.

Orth expects to get back home by the close of the week.

AMUSEMENTS.
Amateur of Music.—The amateur of music, the amateur of music, the amateur of music.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

ORTH TO TESTIFY BEFORE LYNCH

Summoned as Witness in Hearing Regarding Fogel's Charges of Persecution.

Lynchburg, Va., October 14.—Al Orth, who was a member of the National League and during the closing months of the past season, has been summoned to New York by President Lynch, his presence being desired at the sitting of charges made by President Fogel of Philadelphia, to effect that the umpire favored the Giants, thus enabling them to secure another championship.

Orth expects to leave Wednesday night for New York, but he declines to talk about the coming investigation. Ask him about the umpire favoring New York, and he laughs—not the smile that made him famous as a major league moundman for thirteen seasons. Orth, along with him, played the final game of the season in New York, and he was one of the two who headed the big strike in Chicago on the last afternoon of the season, when the players refused to play.

Orth expects to get back home by the close of the week.

AMUSEMENTS.
Amateur of Music.—The amateur of music, the amateur of music, the amateur of music.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

Ernie's Colors
The newest style of colors, the newest style of colors, the newest style of colors.

SPORTS

Baseball
Fletcher dropped a perfect game over the left field line for his last hit, while Meyer scored the first run of the matchless inning, which passed the game away on the spot.

Clayton for a Moment.
With five runs to work on, Marquand grew careless. He fumbled and fumbled Gardner's easy tap, using the single and the double grab. Then then single, and with a few drops, Marquand, batting for O'Brien, took off a double to left, which Devereux batted, and the hectic combination cut two runs.

But that lone assault ended the Boston rally, save one faint flutter in the fourth, when Stahl singled and Wagner drove one like a shot over Mudgrass in center, only to be robbed of a sure triple by the greatest catch of the game, a heart-pounding, pulse-tearing dash and leap for the ball streaking on to the fence.

From that point on Marquand was master of the game and steady scene. He had crashing sluggers like Speaker, Gardner, Lewis and Hooper tied up in true lovers' knots without a chance to assist his classic repertoire at any stage of the fray. In vain Stahl pleaded for a rally, but how the clutch can you "hit 'em where they ain't" when you can't see 'em where they are? It was the Rubes' day to win, for he was not only steady and sure but his support was brilliant and consistent all the way. Mathewson, with anything approaching the same backing, would have won one game and tied another.

Had Glens' Number.
After replacing O'Brien, Ray Collins had the Glens' record and whip-awed. The only ringing blow struck against him came from the war mace of Meyer in the fourth, the longest, hardest wallop of the series—a whistle drive which bisected the space between Lewis and Speaker and which for a faster man would have been a home run. But Collins tightened, and the Indian never left the bag.

The peeling was fast and sure on both sides, despite a scattering drift of errors, which failed to affect the result.

With teams well entered this seventh battle with confidence and with average determination to win. Joe Wood, home ground and will pitch his heart and soul but to win. McGraw announces Tebeau, with a faint chance that he may switch and counter with Mathewson in the main battle of the old master is right. But in any event 25,000 frenzied fanatics will see a fight to the death. For if Boston loses today New York will have the edge with a veteran left to oppose a youngster in the most decisive world series game ever played.

College Men Organize.
Norfolk, Va., October 11.—Norfolk College men to-day organized to work in behalf of the Wilson-Marshall ticket. R. F. Wells was elected president. A committee was appointed to make a canvass of the city for members, and an effort will be made to swell the Democratic campaign fund. J. F. Elbow, representative of the national organization, attended the organization and delivered an address.

More Serious Business.
Norfolk, Va., October 11.—A. J. Franks, a Richmond restaurateur, has been indicted for the same building in Main Street. The consideration was $37,000. The consideration was $37,000.

HARVARTON,
a formal looking collar for informal wear. The parallel lines of this new style make it entirely distinctive.

By a great favorite with college everywhere. Sassy, Stylish, Effective. "YALE-TOWN" is the name collar but lower.

Both made with the famous "Slip-Over" system—solid, and fastened "Lock-the-Loose."

Slip Collars
3 for 50. Quarter Size. Good quality, durable HARVARTON style, a very smart collar.

Wood's Special Grass and Clover Mixtures. Make the Largest Yield of Hay and Pasture.

They are combined in proper proportions to give the best results for the different uses for which they are recommended.

We use in these mixtures our Trade Mark Brand Seed, which is the best quality seed available, and mixed both on a scientific and practical basis.

Our customers report the most satisfactory results, both as to quantity and quality of both hay and pasture.

Wood's Descriptive Full Catalogue, showing full information, also full of all about our Grass and Clover Seed, Alfalfa, and all of our Farm and Garden Seeds, is sent free.

Send postal note. Write for it. T. W. WOOD & SONS, Salisbury, - Richmond, Va.

Tubers
On Wednesday afternoon, the first of the season, the first of the season, the first of the season.

Yale-Town
The name collar but lower.

SPORTS

Baseball
Fletcher dropped a perfect game over the left field line for his last hit, while Meyer scored the first run of the matchless inning, which passed the game away on the spot.

Clayton for a Moment.
With five runs to work on, Marquand grew careless. He fumbled and fumbled Gardner's easy tap, using the single and the double grab. Then then single, and with a few drops, Marquand, batting for O'Brien, took off a double to left, which Devereux batted, and the hectic combination cut two runs.

But that lone assault ended the Boston rally, save one faint flutter in the fourth, when Stahl singled and Wagner drove one like a shot over Mudgrass in center, only to be robbed of a sure triple by the greatest catch of the game, a heart-pounding, pulse-tearing dash and leap for the ball streaking on to the fence.

From that point on Marquand was master of the game and steady scene. He had crashing sluggers like Speaker, Gardner, Lewis and Hooper tied up in true lovers' knots without a chance to assist his classic repertoire at any stage of the fray. In vain Stahl pleaded for a rally, but how the clutch can you "hit 'em where they ain't" when you can't see 'em where they are? It was the Rubes' day to win, for he was not only steady and sure but his support was brilliant and consistent all the way. Mathewson, with anything approaching the same backing, would have won one game and tied another.

Had Glens' Number.
After replacing O'Brien, Ray Collins had the Glens' record and whip-awed. The only ringing blow struck against him came from the war mace of Meyer in the fourth, the longest, hardest wallop of the series—a whistle drive which bisected the space between Lewis and Speaker and which for a faster man would have been a home run. But Collins tightened, and the Indian never left the bag.

The peeling was fast and sure on both sides, despite a scattering drift of errors, which failed to affect the result.

With teams well entered this seventh battle with confidence and with average determination to win. Joe Wood, home ground and will pitch his heart and soul but to win. McGraw announces Tebeau, with a faint chance that he may switch and counter with Mathewson in the main battle of the old master is right. But in any event 25,000 frenzied fanatics will see a fight to the death. For if Boston loses today New York will have the edge with a veteran left to oppose a youngster in the most decisive world series game ever played.

College Men Organize.
Norfolk, Va., October 11.—Norfolk College men to-day organized to work in behalf of the Wilson-Marshall ticket. R. F. Wells was elected president. A committee was appointed to make a canvass of the city for members, and an effort will be made to swell the Democratic campaign fund. J. F. Elbow, representative of the national organization, attended the organization and delivered an address.

More Serious Business.
Norfolk, Va., October 11.—A. J. Franks, a Richmond restaurateur, has been indicted for the same building in Main Street. The consideration was $37,000. The consideration was $37,000.

HARVARTON,
a formal looking collar for informal wear. The parallel lines of this new style make it entirely distinctive.

By a great favorite with college everywhere. Sassy, Stylish, Effective. "YALE-TOWN" is the name collar but lower.

Both made with the famous "Slip-Over" system—solid, and fastened "Lock-the-Loose."

Slip Collars
3 for 50. Quarter Size. Good quality, durable HARVARTON style, a very smart collar.

Wood's Special Grass and Clover Mixtures. Make the Largest Yield of Hay and Pasture.

They are combined in proper proportions to give the best results for the different uses for which they are recommended.

We use in these mixtures our Trade Mark Brand Seed, which is the best quality seed available, and mixed both on a scientific and practical basis.

Our customers report the most satisfactory results, both as to quantity and quality of both hay and pasture.

Wood's Descriptive Full Catalogue, showing full information, also full of all about our Grass and Clover Seed, Alfalfa, and all of our Farm and Garden Seeds, is sent free.

Send postal note. Write for it. T. W. WOOD & SONS, Salisbury, - Richmond, Va.

Tubers
On Wednesday afternoon, the first of the season, the first of the season, the first of the season.

Yale-Town
The name collar but lower.

SPORTS

Baseball
Fletcher dropped a perfect game over the left field line for his last hit, while Meyer scored the first run of the matchless inning, which passed the game away on the spot.

Clayton for a Moment.
With five runs to work on, Marquand grew careless. He fumbled and fumbled Gardner's easy tap, using the single and the double grab. Then then single, and with a few drops, Marquand, batting for O'Brien, took off a double to left, which Devereux batted, and the hectic combination cut two runs.

But that lone assault ended the Boston rally, save one faint flutter in the fourth, when Stahl singled and Wagner drove one like a shot over Mudgrass in center, only to be robbed of a sure triple by the greatest catch of the game, a heart-pounding, pulse-tearing dash and leap for the ball streaking on to the fence.

From that point on Marquand was master of the game and steady scene. He had crashing sluggers like Speaker, Gardner, Lewis and Hooper tied up in true lovers' knots without a chance to assist his classic repertoire at any stage of the fray. In vain Stahl pleaded for a rally, but how the clutch can you "hit 'em where they ain't" when you can't see 'em where they are? It was the Rubes' day to win, for he was not only steady and sure but his support was brilliant and consistent all the way. Mathewson, with anything approaching the same backing, would have won one game and tied another.

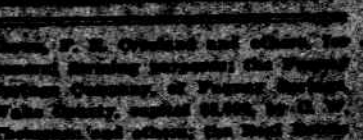

Had Glens' Number.
After replacing O'Brien, Ray Collins had the Glens' record and whip-awed. The only ringing blow struck against him came from the war mace of Meyer in the fourth, the longest, hardest wallop of the series—a whistle drive which bisected the space between Lewis and Speaker and which for a faster man would have been a home run. But Collins tightened, and the Indian never left the bag.

The peeling was fast and sure on both sides, despite a scattering drift of errors, which failed to affect the result.

With teams well entered this seventh battle with confidence and with average determination to win. Joe Wood, home ground and will pitch his heart and soul but to win. McGraw announces Tebeau, with a faint chance that he may switch and counter with Mathewson in the main battle of the old master is right. But in any event 25,000 frenzied fanatics will see a fight to the death. For if Boston loses today New York will have the edge with a veteran left to oppose a youngster in the most decisive world series game ever played.

College Men Organize.
Norfolk, Va., October 11.—Norfolk College men to-day organized to work in behalf of the Wilson-Marshall ticket. R. F. Wells was elected president. A committee was appointed to make a canvass of the city for members, and an effort will be made to swell the Democratic campaign fund. J. F. Elbow, representative of the national organization, attended the organization and delivered an address.

More Serious Business.
Norfolk, Va., October 11.—A. J. Franks, a Richmond restaurateur, has been indicted for the same building in Main Street. The consideration was $37,000. The consideration was $37,000.

HARVARTON,
a formal looking collar for informal wear. The parallel lines of this new style make it entirely distinctive.

By a great favorite with college everywhere. Sassy, Stylish, Effective. "YALE-TOWN" is the name collar but lower.

Both made with the famous "Slip-Over" system—solid, and fastened "Lock-the-Loose."

Slip Collars
3 for 50. Quarter Size. Good quality, durable HARVARTON style, a very smart collar.

Wood's Special Grass and Clover Mixtures. Make the Largest Yield of Hay and Pasture.

They are combined in proper proportions to give the best results for the different uses for which they are recommended.

We use in these mixtures our Trade Mark Brand Seed, which is the best quality seed available, and mixed both on a scientific and practical basis.

Our customers report the most satisfactory results, both as to quantity and quality of both hay and pasture.

Wood's Descriptive Full Catalogue, showing full information, also full of all about our Grass and Clover Seed, Alfalfa, and all of our Farm and Garden Seeds, is sent free.

Send postal note. Write for it. T. W. WOOD & SONS, Salisbury, - Richmond, Va.

Tubers
On Wednesday afternoon, the first of the season, the first of the season, the first of the season.

Yale-Town
The name collar but lower.